Brooklyn Academy of Music.
ITALIAN OPERA.

MAX MARETZKE.....Director

CARD.—The Director has the honor to announce that, previous to the departure of his newly-organized Company for Philadelphia and Boston, he will give a series of

FOUR OPERA NIGHTS,

AT THE

BROOKLYN ACADEMY OF MUSIC,
ON THE

10th, 11th, 12th and 13th of OCTOBER, in order to afford the public and his friends the earliest opportunity of hearing the celebrated

and the other distinguished artists, engaged expressly for the season of 1866-67, of whom a full list will be hereafter published.

SIGNOR RONCONI has been pronounced by the most eminent critics of Europe, the "Prince of Buffos," the "Greatest living Comedian on the Lyric Stage," etc., etc. The Director does not, however, refer to these facts from any desire to force upon American audiences the judgment of the English and European public. On the contrary, being most anxious to avoid everything in the shape of preparatory puffing, he wishes it well understood that he relies solely upon Signor RONCONI's own endeavors before the public to obtain at their hands an endorsement of that exalted opinion which in the old world has proceeded from a full recognition of his intrinsic merit.

The Director would further state that he has, at very heavy expense, REPLACED THE MUSIC, COSTUMES, APPOINTMENTS, ETC., that were destroyed in the burning of the late Academy of Music, and he is most happy in being able to assure his patrons that every opera given during the approaching season will be presented in a style far superior to anything yet witnessed on the operatic stage of America.

In conclusion, he desires respectfully to direct attention to the fact that, notwithstanding the many obstacles which had to be encountered, in consequence of the destruction of the leading Opera House of the Continent, all contemplated engagements for the season have been fulfilled, and that nothing has been left undone which could in any way advance the high position of the leading Italian Opera in America.

Philharmonic Society of Brooklyn.

TENTH SEASON.

The Board of Directors have the honor to announce that they have completed, for the coming season, arrangements which promise to make it unusually brilliant and successful. The ample orchestra of the Society has been carefully reconstructed of the best material, and the duties of the conductorship will be committed to the rare energy and skill of Mr. THEODORE THOMAS, whose name has come to be, in all matters of musical enterprise, a synonym of success. Mr. Thomas has been engaged, during the past Summer, in collating for these Concerts the most meritorious NOVELTIES of the musical repertoire in Europe, and these will be presented, together with the standard works of the OLD MASTERS.

The Orchestral Programme for the first Concert comprises: 1. Abert's Symphony No. 1, in D major, entitled "Columbus," a Marine Picture, a work by a new composer, but already very popular at the Philharmonic Concerts of the continent. 2. Beethoven's Overture to Leonora, No. 3. 3. The "Keiter Marsch," by Schubert, instrumentated for grand orchestra by Liszt. In addition, the best solo talent, instrumental and vocal, will be secured for each Concert.

The price of subscription for five concerts and fifteen rehearsals has been reduced to $7.; professional, $5. First Rehearsal, Oct. 3. First Concert, Oct. 27.

By order of the Board,

TESTIMONIALS FROM THE PROFESSION.

After having examined the Pianofortes of Messrs. DECKER BROS. very carefully, we have come to the conclusion and cheerfully testify that they are in every respect superior instruments. Their tone is pure, rich, brilliant, very distinct, and of an entirely musical character. Their workmanship is of the very best, plainly demonstrating that none but the very best materials are used, and their touch, evenness, and quality of tone throughout the whole compass of the key-board unsurpassed by any other Pianoforte we have ever seen.
